R attorneys- (I am including all those who Kienzle has emailed in the recent past related to redistricting issues).

Per my discussion with Mickey today, there will be a meeting at Mickey's office (1905 Wyoming Blvd NE) tomorrow morning (Friday, September 16, 2011) at 7:30 a.m. to discuss issues related to litigation over redistricting. In particular, the specific issue is an analysis of whether we can file and keep a redistricting lawsuit in Federal Court. Recall that 10 years ago, the federal court was unwilling to retain jurisdiction and sent the suit back to state court.

I have attached an article that Hank Bohnhoff obtained at the RNLA Election Law Seminar that was held on August 12, 2011. The article is written by John Ryder. He argues that Federal Court has jurisdiction and that the redistricting suit should stay in federal court if it is filed first. I am having my associates research this issue further and will provide additional information asap.

Please let us know if you are able to attend tomorrow morning. Mickey indicated that breakfast burritos can (or will) be ordered.

Jessica Hernandez will be calling in to attend the meeting.

Brian,

Good to hear from you. We must have past some where between Albuquerque and Washington, DC. I started on June 1st as Heather's campaign manager for her Senate race here in New Mexico and have spent the last month moving to Santa Fe.

I hope you and Linda had a good move to DC. Where are the two of you living? I should be back in DC some time during September and I will plan on touching base with you then so we can get together.

Good luck with the New Mexico DC office.

Linda and I just got moved in this week, and I start (officially) working on Monday. We don't even have an office yet, but are looking pretty seriously at the Hall of States. As this is unrelated to the poor Hispanic Dr. Pepper girl that Jay hates, I would appreciate a plug if Beserra calls.

Tourism industry leery of agency merger

The Associated Press

9/11/2011

<http://www.krqe.com/dpp/news/tourism-industry-leery-of-agency-merger>

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - New Mexico tourism industry officials want Gov. Susana Martinez's administration to slow down its efforts to merge the state's tourism and cultural departments, saying they would like more information about what money would be saved as well as broader assurances that some of the savings would be spent to market the state.

"The point that we are trying to make is that tourism is the second largest private sector industry in the state, bringing in $6 billion plus in revenues and over $760 million in taxes," said Sharon Schultz, CEO of the Tourism Association of New Mexico. "It's disappointing to think that kind of impact is not appreciated to the full extent of keeping it at a cabinet level agency unto itself."

Martinez has asked legislators during the current 30-day special session on redistricting to also shrink government by merging several state agencies, including the Cultural Affairs and Tourism departments.

Lawmakers rejected a similar proposal during the regular session. Schultz says industry representatives opposed the bill originally and told Tourism Secretary Monique Jacobson in a meeting last week that they remain reticent about the merger.

"From the tourism side, the concern is that the Cultural Affairs Department is so huge that the tourism department is just going to get swallowed up," she said.

The Tourism Department has a $14 million budget and employs 76 people, while Cultural Affairs, which oversees museums, monuments, the State Library, arts and historic preservation, has a $42 million budget and about 450 employees.

Jacobson, who would become secretary of the larger merged department, has assured the industry that won't happen. Jacobson said she believe the departments can be stronger together and that a merger would help her ongoing efforts to develop a strong marketing campaign that promotes all of the state's treasures — including its museums and other cultural facilities.

"I think there is some validity to that," Schultz said. "Tourists do like to go to museums and monuments. Joint marketing could increase traffic. But the mission of these departments as defined right now is very different. Cultural affairs people feel their attractions for the locals and the tourism industry is broader than that.

"The bottom line is we want more people to come here. We don't care what they do. We want them to come and spend their money."

Schultz says the industry is pleased that Jacobson would head the department if the merger is completed as they are happy with her strong marketing emphasis. Tourism officials are glad that the department would be called the Tourism and Cultural Department instead of the Cultural and Tourism Department, as originally proposed.

"But that's a very small concession," she said, emphasizing the plan should not be rushed.

"We want to take it out to our membership," she said. "We want to explain the fine points of the bill. Our basic feeling for the special session is we don't think it will get passed anyway. But it will come up again in January ... and there's just a lot of things that will be helpful to explain in a little more detail."

Jessica: Can I add my 2 cents on these?

Sam Winder-R: I would defer to Greg Fouratt's opinion. He knows Sam far better than I do. I think he's pretty close to Ryan C.

Kim Middlebrooks-R (now): Nice enough lady. However a big financial contributor to Brian Colon. The Governor would probably want to know that.

Brett Loveless-R: Very nice guy. Competent and experienced career prosecutor. Nice family. Not politically active. No political background or experience that I know of.

John Polk-R: Very good and experienced lawyer. Top notch. Very experienced politically. He was very close to Steve Schiff and helped him tremendously in his congressional races. Really knows grassroots politics. Would run a very capable campaign here in Bernalillo County. I think he's the best of this list.

Pres Torres-D: Again, I would defer to Greg Fouratt on this one. He knows him very well. Also, I suspect the Governor knows him very well. Enough said there.

Julie Altweis-D: Reputation as being a horrible Metro judge. Got her appointment from Richardson with Manny Aragon's help. She and her former husband, former District Judge Kavanaugh (who was very tight with Manny) , came under scrutiny during the Metro courthouse scandal. He narrowly escaped indictment and resigned his judgeship abruptly. Apparently, their house was remodeled for free by one of the co-defendants in the Manny Aragon indictment. Rumor has it (and I think it's more than rumor) that the backyard BBQ grill was built partially with the marble Manny stole from the courthouse project. The press knows this and it would undoubtedly surface should she be appointed.

Let me know if you have any questions. PJK

Jay -

I received a call from Laura Van Hove requesting to set up a call between Governor and the former Governor from Hawaii, Linda Lingle. Discussion topic is that Governor Lingle is putting in her name for the US Senate Seat for Hawaii. She would like to place the call so is asking for Gov's number. Would like the call to happen sometime next week or the following week. Told her next week Gov is at Border Governor's conference.

Please let me know how to respond.

Ryan, I agree with Steve. If the PRC is not changed as must happen to the Workforce Solutions Dept. these two dysfunctional organizations will kill all the positive efforts of Union Pacific, land exchanges and permitting of new corporations via PRC approval. PLEASE share letter with our Gov. I will be in Santa Fe on Monday if you want to hear all the details I am hearing from friends concerning the PRC. Business on the Border will explode but we need all the players to be professional.

DRAFT #1 9/27/11

Susana,

It has been clear that I have no choice but to proceed to suing the State of New Mexico for violations of my civil rights. The new NM Public Regulation Commission is without any concern for any level of justice. Commissioner Jason Marks (District 1) has admitted that some cases are decided base on EMOTIONS and not based on CASE LAW. Please read: <http://elpasotimes.typepad.com/newmexico/2011/08/tiny-utility-faces-might-of-prc.html> and <http://elpasotimes.typepad.com/newmexico/2011/08/utility-owner-will-not-quit.html> for Commissioner Marks statements.

It appears to me that Commissioners Ben Hall (NMPRC District 5) and Pat Lyons (NMPRC District 2) are concerned about political futures with the King Family, and not with any level of justice or fair representation of New Mexico taxpayers. The feedback I am getting is that you are just a "flash in the pan" and all they (politicians) have to do is tolerate you for a few years and you will give up. They are feeling a level of false security after this special legislative session. As you know, "One battle does not win a war." Of course, they never saw you in action here in Dona Ana County, where the predominate Democratic presence did little to stop you and your overall success. I continue to believe that you are not just the Dona of Dona Ana County, but also the Dona Susana of New Mexico. I know that many others want to see a collective change in New Mexico, specially the ratepayers of NM as they are the ones affording the "bill" that pays for protecting all of the corrupt politicians the State has protected in the past. I'm counting on you that you would not tolerate the former administration "Protection practice." We need you, and that IS the bottom line fact.

The lost millions as a result of all the corruption stagger the imagination. The Kings Mafia and their insatiable ego must be stopped, and they need to feel the pain of their violations and crimes. There is a plan and it must be implemented.

Yesterday, my attorney and I spoke to a top Civil Rights attorney in Albuquerque. The attorney said that he was representing the State against PRC employees who had been fired for so called "misconduct." So, the State squanders millions on "independent counsel" to protect corrupt politicians such as former NMPRC Commissioner David King!!! A repeat offender of the law of New Mexico. Commissioner David King fired over 30 employees at the PRC. There are 5 pending lawsuits in Santa Fe District Court because of David King. Why? Paranoia and self-preservation, and because he could use the system to protect himself. In other words, the "snake is trying to eat itself and just can't." Corrupt politicians like David King use the State to protect their crimes. Remember what I said about the legal cartel? It lives and breathes and is doing fine. This is at the root of all evil in New Mexico, using the State to protect corruption and put the burden on the People or taxpayers of New Mexico. This needs to stop, and you know that. What about the NM Fraud Against Taxpayers Act?

In my case the Supreme Court ruled the Bank of the Rio Grande loan to PHUC was "void" now the bank is trying to court and coerce the PRC to rule contrary to the High Court and appoint a receiver so the bank can sell their stock to principals of the Verde Group. I am meeting Examiners of the Comptroller of the Currency to investigate the bank files further and remind the Bank if they want to try to foreclose on a customer that is current with excellent collateral they cannot use the PRC, in its corrupt state, but must go to District Court with "hard facts." You, as the Governor have started such a program, don't hide behind the State to protect you, if you have done something wrong in the name of the State you should pay. The NM Fraud Against Taxpayers Act ("FATA") should be used to collect millions from Richardson, the Kings Mafia and others who are abusing public funds to protect their corruption. District Attorney Matt Chandler is very well versed on this act and other legal "tools" to go after public officials that have abused the State funds.

A significant investor friend of mine in Los Angeles refused to consider my offer to visit New Mexico, Santa Teresa and the Spaceport saying the reputation of the King/Richardson Gestapo was well traveled and he would rather look for investments elsewhere in other Western States. Very sad for us, very sad indeed...

I repeat that my decision to sue the State is based on years of corruption and abuse me and my family have been exposed to, and I will go to my last to expose it. Once I reveal the depth of this deception at the PRC and NM State Engineer Office (NMSEO), I suggest that there are those that should pay the State back pursuant to the NM Fraud Against Taxpayers Act to recover legal and other costs related to their illegal conduct over the years as state public officials.

My best regards,

Respectfully,

Stephen Blanco

Andrea, Kim,

The dinner we sponsor at the annual NMOGA event will be held at the Inn of Loretto in the Zuni Ballroom in Santa Fe on Saturday October 1st. we will have cocktails starting at 7:30 pm and at 8:00 pm I will introduce our Halliburton VP's and they will speak a minute and then they will introduce Congressmen Pearce and Governor Martinez and let them speak. I expect around 120 people in attendance of which all will be oil & Gas CEO's & VP's along with there people and spouses. We will have both West Texas & New Mexico oil & Gas company people in attendance. I know all are very big supporters of them both. After the dinner we will have some entertainment.

We would love to have them join us this year.

Jessica: Can I add my 2 cents on these?

Sam Winder-R: I would defer to Greg Fouratt's opinion. He knows Sam far better than I do. I think he's pretty close to Ryan C.

Kim Middlebrooks-R (now): Nice enough lady. However a big financial contributor to Brian Colon. The Governor would probably want to know that.

Brett Loveless-R: Very nice guy. Competent and experienced career prosecutor. Nice family. Not politically active. No political background or experience that I know of.

John Polk-R: Very good and experienced lawyer. Top notch. Very experienced politically. He was very close to Steve Schiff and helped him tremendously in his congressional races. Really knows grassroots politics. Would run a very capable campaign here in Bernalillo County. I think he's the best of this list.

Pres Torres-D: Again, I would defer to Greg Fouratt on this one. He knows him very well. Also, I suspect the Governor knows him very well. Enough said there.

Julie Altweis-D: Reputation as being a horrible Metro judge. Got her appointment from Richardson with Manny Aragon's help. She and her former husband, former District Judge Kavanaugh (who was very tight with Manny) , came under scrutiny during the Metro courthouse scandal. He narrowly escaped indictment and resigned his judgeship abruptly. Apparently, their house was remodeled for free by one of the co-defendants in the Manny Aragon indictment. Rumor has it (and I think it's more than rumor) that the backyard BBQ grill was built partially with the marble Manny stole from the courthouse project. The press knows this and it would undoubtedly surface should she be appointed.

Let me know if you have any questions. PJK

Jay -

I received a call from Laura Van Hove requesting to set up a call between Governor and the former Governor from Hawaii, Linda Lingle. Discussion topic is that Governor Lingle is putting in her name for the US Senate Seat for Hawaii. She would like to place the call so is asking for Gov's number. Would like the call to happen sometime next week or the following week. Told her next week Gov is at Border Governor's conference.

Please let me know how to respond.

Thx

Ryan, I agree with Steve. If the PRC is not changed as must happen to the Workforce Solutions Dept. these two dysfunctional organizations will kill all the positive efforts of Union Pacific, land exchanges and permitting of new corporations via PRC approval. PLEASE share letter with our Gov. I will be in Santa Fe on Monday if you want to hear all the details I am hearing from friends concerning the PRC. Business on the Border will explode but we need all the players to be professional.

DRAFT #1 9/27/11

Susana,

It has been clear that I have no choice but to proceed to suing the State of New Mexico for violations of my civil rights. The new NM Public Regulation Commission is without any concern for any level of justice. Commissioner Jason Marks (District 1) has admitted that some cases are decided base on EMOTIONS and not based on CASE LAW. Please read: <http://elpasotimes.typepad.com/newmexico/2011/08/tiny-utility-faces-might-of-prc.html> and <http://elpasotimes.typepad.com/newmexico/2011/08/utility-owner-will-not-quit.html> for Commissioner Marks statements.

It appears to me that Commissioners Ben Hall (NMPRC District 5) and Pat Lyons (NMPRC District 2) are concerned about political futures with the King Family, and not with any level of justice or fair representation of New Mexico taxpayers. The feedback I am getting is that you are just a "flash in the pan" and all they (politicians) have to do is tolerate you for a few years and you will give up. They are feeling a level of false security after this special legislative session. As you know, "One battle does not win a war." Of course, they never saw you in action here in Dona Ana County, where the predominate Democratic presence did little to stop you and your overall success. I continue to believe that you are not just the Dona of Dona Ana County, but also the Dona Susana of New Mexico. I know that many others want to see a collective change in New Mexico, specially the ratepayers of NM as they are the ones affording the "bill" that pays for protecting all of the corrupt politicians the State has protected in the past. I'm counting on you that you would not tolerate the former administration "Protection practice." We need you, and that IS the bottom line fact.

The lost millions as a result of all the corruption stagger the imagination. The Kings Mafia and their insatiable ego must be stopped, and they need to feel the pain of their violations and crimes. There is a plan and it must be implemented.

Yesterday, my attorney and I spoke to a top Civil Rights attorney in Albuquerque. The attorney said that he was representing the State against PRC employees who had been fired for so called "misconduct." So, the State squanders millions on "independent counsel" to protect corrupt politicians such as former NMPRC Commissioner David King!!! A repeat offender of the law of New Mexico. Commissioner David King fired over 30 employees at the PRC. There are 5 pending lawsuits in Santa Fe District Court because of David King. Why? Paranoia and self-preservation, and because he could use the system to protect himself. In other words, the "snake is trying to eat itself and just can't." Corrupt politicians like David King use the State to protect their crimes. Remember what I said about the legal cartel? It lives and breathes and is doing fine. This is at the root of all evil in New Mexico, using the State to protect corruption and put the burden on the People or taxpayers of New Mexico. This needs to stop, and you know that. What about the NM Fraud Against Taxpayers Act?

In my case the Supreme Court ruled the Bank of the Rio Grande loan to PHUC was "void" now the bank is trying to court and coerce the PRC to rule contrary to the High Court and appoint a receiver so the bank can sell their stock to principals of the Verde Group. I am meeting Examiners of the Comptroller of the Currency to investigate the bank files further and remind the Bank if they want to try to foreclose on a customer that is current with excellent collateral they cannot use the PRC, in its corrupt state, but must go to District Court with "hard facts." You, as the Governor have started such a program, don't hide behind the State to protect you, if you have done something wrong in the name of the State you should pay. The NM Fraud Against Taxpayers Act ("FATA") should be used to collect millions from Richardson, the Kings Mafia and others who are abusing public funds to protect their corruption. District Attorney Matt Chandler is very well versed on this act and other legal "tools" to go after public officials that have abused the State funds.

A significant investor friend of mine in Los Angeles refused to consider my offer to visit New Mexico, Santa Teresa and the Spaceport saying the reputation of the King/Richardson Gestapo was well traveled and he would rather look for investments elsewhere in other Western States. Very sad for us, very sad indeed...

I repeat that my decision to sue the State is based on years of corruption and abuse me and my family have been exposed to, and I will go to my last to expose it. Once I reveal the depth of this deception at the PRC and NM State Engineer Office (NMSEO), I suggest that there are those that should pay the State back pursuant to the NM Fraud Against Taxpayers Act to recover legal and other costs related to their illegal conduct over the years as state public officials.

My best regards,

Respectfully,

Stephen Blanco

Andrea, Kim,

The dinner we sponsor at the annual NMOGA event will be held at the Inn of Loretto in the Zuni Ballroom in Santa Fe on Saturday October 1st. we will have cocktails starting at 7:30 pm and at 8:00 pm I will introduce our Halliburton VP's and they will speak a minute and then they will introduce Congressmen Pearce and Governor Martinez and let them speak. I expect around 120 people in attendance of which all will be oil & Gas CEO's & VP's along with there people and spouses. We will have both West Texas & New Mexico oil & Gas company people in attendance. I know all are very big supporters of them both. After the dinner we will have some entertainment.

We would love to have them join us this year.
Please call me for any questions.

Do you have any info on the Halliburton event being held in Santa Fe on Saturday, October 1?

Keith and Kim: Don't worry about sending me material for an introduction of the Governor. I wrote it today because I am leaving for NM first thing tomorrow morning. I think I am all set and I think that Susana will like it. Bobbie

Keith: I will be introducing Susana for her presentation to the RGA Executive Roundtable on September 22nd. Please send me a summary of her campaign platform and also a few notable accomplishments since she took office. I would need this by COB Tuesday because I will not have access to a printer after that time. Thanks very much and I will look forward to seeing you next week. Bobbie
